Mission Statement

- ❖ To generate positive reinforcements for juniors in the area of morals, ethics, honesty, etiquette and sportsmanship through the game of golf.
- ❖ To provide juniors with a positive environment to learn the skills necessary to succeed in the future.
- ❖ To provide scholarship and golf program to empower juniors to reach their highest potential.
- ❖ To provide a substantial training opportunity for Chinese-American junior golfers.

What CAGF Does?

- ❖ To join with neighborhood golf courses in LA, Riverside or Palm Springs to provide Free Monthly Junior Clinic (include free driving range and bilingual coaches) for juniors.
- ❖ To provide substantial tournament experience for junior golfers, CAGF has organized its inaugural event " Chinese American Golf Invitational" for Junior Championship on July 4th, 2002 at Oak Valley Golf Club. This invitational has been hosting on July 3rd & 4th each year for Six consecutive years.
- ❖ Providing scholarship and golf benefactor program to empower juniors to reach their higher potential.

SCPGA Foundation

The Southern California Section of the PGA of America created the Southern California PGA Foundation to develop and administer junior golf programs as well as an increasingly wide array of other community services throughout the Section. The Southern California PGA Foundation is a 501 (c) (3) non-profit organization and operates as a public foundation.

For more than 50 years the Southern California PGA Junior Tour has been providing competitive playing and comprehensive learning opportunities for young golfers aged 7-18., The Tour has boasted incredible Alumni that includes Tiger Woods, Jason Gore, John Cook, Bob May, Candie Kung, and more.

With more than 200 events in a year includes highly competitive nationally ranked events, the SCPGA Junior Tour has proven to be the best place for young golfers to further their growth in the game.
